May Utilize Lawrence Sewer

The Regional Vocational-Technical High School on River rd. will be allowed to tie into a Lawrence sewer on Andover st. - a procedure which had first been turned down by the city of Lawrence.

When engineers found that the River rd. site was not suitable for leaching fields, the city agreed to approve extension of the sewer, providing storage tanks are constructed to hold the materials until evening, when it can be discharged into the lines. The critical problem involved the capacity of the city's pumping station, but use during off-peak hours was the eventual solution to the problem.

There has been some conversation among town officials about utilizing this sewer line - at some distant time - to serve the town's industrial area around and off River rd. This possibility has never reached the serious discussion stage, however.

The boys are looking forward to marching in the Memorial Day Parade, to their baseball game outing in Boston June 13, and to their annual family picnic June 21. Any boys who wish to take parents, brothers and sisters, or other guests to the ball game should ask their den mothers. There will be a nominal charge for guests.

The parents enjoyed the display of crafts which included some gifts for mothers' day. The closing prayer was led by Joseph Adams. Apologies go to Mrs. Pasho and her boys. They gave an entertaining musical at the April pack meeting, and their names were omitted from the paper. The following boys took part: Philip Pasho, Robert Lundergan, Robert Campbell, and Robert Farnham as the Beatles; David Ashton doing Louis Armstrong; and Paul Lindholm, William Dionne and Peter Kerwin as Trumpeters.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS - The Friendly Circle of the Baptist Church celebrated its silver anniversary last week, with a banquet and happy glimpses into the past. Taking part were Mrs. Louis Sanborn, Mrs. Helen Thompson, Mrs. Stephen O'Connor and Mrs. Fred H. Otis. (Cole)

Friendly Circle Marked It's 25th Anniversary

Twelve past presidents were in attendance to receive special recognition at the 25th Anniversary celebration of the Friendly Circle, at the Andover Baptist Church Monday evening.

Mrs. Arthur Smith of Rattlesnake Hill rd., having been the first president of the group when it was organized in 1939, was presented with a pink carnation and was asked to cut the anniversary cake, baked and decorated for the occasion by one of the newest members, Mrs. Richard Launsbury Jr.

Mrs. Fred Otis, president of the Circle for the current year, and the vice president, Mrs. Charlotte O'Connor, presented carnations to Clarabelle Cahill, Luella Thompson, Muriel Fisher, Dell Williams, Evelyn Ward, Janice McLean, Edith Eastman, Marjory Lundgren, Helen Towne and Helen Hesse, who had served as presidents of the organization in prior years.

Also among the 55 members and friends present for the anniversary was Mrs. Roy Nelson Jr., of Framingham. Mrs. Nelson took an active part in the Circle's activities during the years her husband served the church as pastor.

Miss Sarah Wiss led the Circle in an inspiring devotional service, based on the theme of friendship, immediately following the anniversary supper. Miss Wiss read the call to worship, a poem entitled "Forever Friends", after which the scripture lesson from 1st John 4 was read by Mrs. Charles Shattuck, and a lovely duet was sung by Mrs. O'Connor and Mrs. Emerson Wilson. A meditation, "The Gift of Friends", was presented by Miss Helen Thompson and the story of the hymn, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" was read by Mrs. Webster Woodworth. Following the hymn story, the group joined in the singing of the hymn and Mrs. Esther Estelle read the poem "At Mother's Knee". Miss Wiss then closed the devotions with prayer.

Fond memories were recalled by the history of the Circle's activities presented by Mrs. John McLean and a resume from the records of treasurer Helen Thompson, showing a gratifying sum of funds raised and contributed by the Circle to the church and to various charities through the years. Everyone also enjoyed the numerous snapshots and slides that were shown of former Circle gatherings.

The celebration closed on a serious note, with members standing in a moment of silent remembrance for Mrs. Everett Lundgren, and Mrs. Henry Jenkins who, in their life-times had been sponsors, guides, and most of all friends of the Girl's Friendly Circle.

Held Shower For Deanna Hudgins

The home of Mrs. Roger Lewis of Laurel In. was the scene last Friday night for a Miscellaneous Shower for Miss Deanna Hudgins of North st.

Those present were Mrs. Doris Hudgins, Mrs. Gertrude Stewart, Mrs. Helen Dow, Mrs. Betty Peterson, Mrs. Eleanor Hall, Mrs. Constance Smyth, Patricia Lewis, Mrs. Sally Hudgins, Mrs. Irene Dantos, Mrs. Anthony Kundrat, Mrs. Natalie Stockham, Mrs. Janet Lake, Mrs. Helen Parker, Miss Harriet McKee, Mrs. Ruth White, Mrs. Irene Doyle, Mrs. Vera Long, Mrs. Frances Dixon, Mrs. Irma Peatman, Mrs. Helen Northey and Miss Louise Wayland.

Mrs. Suren Loosigian has returned to her home on Blanchard st., following a week's stay at the Lawrence General Hospital, where she was a medical patient.

Galen, born in Asia Minor in 131 A.D., was an early and potent name in medicine and his influence was felt until the 17th Century. In fact, it is quite possible that even today pharmacopoeias are still not totally free of some of the compounds of no worth called vegetable simples, or galenicals, attributable to Galen.

One result of Galen's teaching was the Galenical system of therapeutics which called for use of several thousand drugs. It wasn't uncommon for a single prescription to call for a hundred or more drugs.

We aren't particularly thrilled at SHAWSHEEN PHARMACY by single prescriptions calling for a hundred or more drugs, but you can be sure that they will receive our personal attention. Seriously, for a complete prescription service depend on SHAWSHEEN PHARMACY, Shawsheen Square. Free prescription delivery. THIS WEEK'S HOUSEHOLD HINT: Eyebrow tweezers are handy to untie badly-knotted shoe laces.

Committee chairmen were as follows: Decorations, Mrs. Gordon McAdams; Hospitality, Mrs. Robert Cole; Telephone, Mrs. Robert Klie; Program and Club Booklet, Mrs. Clinton Seeley; Publicity, Mrs. J. Duncan Black; and Refreshments, Mrs. Norman Teahan.

Anyone who has recently moved to Andover and would like to attend the Installation Tea of the Newcomers Club may call Mrs. Seeley.

NEW ENGLANDERS TELL WHY THEY SWITCHED TO THE '64 FORD

Ford's sales gain in the '64 1st quarter tops Chevy's and Plymouth's combined. Here are six reasons for the big switch:

Mrs. R. Hafer, Pease AF Base, N.H.

I'm used to a big car, but I test-drove a Falcon Futura and loved the comfort, roominess and smooth ride. We switched from a '58 Buick!

Mr. J. Almeida, Portsmouth, R.I.

My 21-year-old daughter and I drove the new Fairlane. We thought it was solidier, better built than other makes so we traded in our Chevy.

Mrs. P. McNamara, Lowell, Mass.

We switched from Plymouth to a new Ford Fairlane and what a difference. It has lots of room for our 4 children, looks and handles better.

Mr. W. S. Wright, Enosburg Falls, Vt.

I run a mail route and 3 of the other 4 mail carriers at this Post Office own and like Fairlane 500's, so I tried one. Glad I did.

Mr. R. C. Dent, Manchester, Conn.

I switched from a foreign car to a '64 Fairlane 500 Sports Coupe. It's more comfortable and easier to service at Ford. The test drive sold me.

Mr. J. J. Mooney, Windsor, Conn.

We switched from Chevy to a new Ford Galaxie. Our Ford Dealer gave the best trade-in. For a low-priced car, Ford sure has a luxury feel.

Will Attempt Land Re-zoning

Land west of Dascomb rd., adjacent to the railroad, will be presented for re-zoning at the special town meeting June 15. The area, now in a Residential C zone, would be re-classified to Industrial D - the most restrictive of the industrial zones.

The Planning Board will sponsor the article based on the interest of a firm to locate a warehouse distribution center there. Chairman Harold King, reporting to his Board Monday night, said an investment of $700,000 to a million dollars can be expected, if the firm settles here. The land in question abuts the Tewksbury industrial zone.

Mr. King said the firm is consolidating several other warehouse facilities into this one, providing favorable action is taken at the June session.

Some 45 persons would be employed, he said.

The firm - whose name was not revealed - intends to receive bulk shipments by rail, and divide these into smaller units for distribution from this center. Mr. King said trucks would be able to use the Dascomb rd., Route 93 interchange.

The area proposed for re-zoning was the subject of heated debate some years ago, when it was proposed to put a motel on the general site.

Crusade For Christ In No. Reading

Dr. Torrey Johnson, globe-trotting evangelist and missionary statesman, is conducting a 15-day "Crusade for Christ" at the Nazarene Camp Grounds on Route 28 in North Reading.

Sponsored by 40 churches in the Merrimack Valley, the Crusade is endeavoring to spread the Word of Christ by lifting religion out of the church and bringing it to the man on the street.

At a recent rally at Andover Junior High School, Dr. Johnson said, "Death is something everyone must prepare for". He urged his listeners not to fear it, but to ready themselves spiritually, so that when it strikes, they would not be unprepared.

On another matter, Dr. Johnson said the only hope for America and the Free World is a general spiritual awakening. This awakening is evident in Russia and is the reason for the present Soviet anti-religious campaign. "You can kill religion; but you can't kill God", Dr. Johnson said.

Dr. Johnson's crusade had been scheduled to be held at the Junior High School Auditorium, and at Cochran Chapel at Phillips Academy. However, the Crusade Committee was forced to find new quarters for the Crusade when the Boston Chapter of the Civil Liberties Union voiced an objection to the meetings being held in the Junior High School Auditorium. The Civil Liberties Union action came a week after Dr. Johnson's rally April 6, at the Andover Junior High School Auditorium.

At present, plans for the 1964 Merrimack Valley Crusade for Christ call for locating at the Nazarene Camp Grounds, on Route 28 in North Reading, through May 24 at 7:30 nightly.

The Crusade is being sponsored by some 40 churches in and around the Merrimack Valley. Dr. Johnson is a world traveller who jumps from one hemisphere to another. He spent the past year in Brazil and Korea. In 1958 he conducted a city-wide campaign for Christ in Liverpool, England. In June of this year, Dr. Johnson plans to leave for Europe. In September, he will return to Brazil.

School Board Wants Speedy Town Decision

The School Committee wants action, from the Selectmen and town manager, to put Sanborn School grounds in shape.

An unanimous vote of the Committee Tuesday night referred the controversial item to the town's top elected officials for speedy action. A minority of the Committee - members William A. Doherty and Vincent P. Davey - thought the subject should go back to the Sanborn School Building Committee.

At issue is an area to the rear of the school which, while rough graded, is not suitable for free play.

Remaining problems, especially an open ditch and exposed drain pipe, will be fixed by the School Building Committee.

Supt. of Schools Edward I. Erickson said that Committee does not believe it is responsible for the rough graded area - they claim the specifications only call for it to be that way. Thus, any further work on the site comes as an improvement.

Mr. Doherty, to the contrary, claims that the Building Committee should have been responsible for the area. He asked that the matter be referred back to the Building Committee, with the suggestion that funds be sought at the special town meeting in June. Then, he said, the Building Committee could eventually turn over a completed project to the School Committee.

Despite a sharp discussion over what town board should get the Committee's letter of request, the Board was agreed that work must be done. They termed the area at the rear of the school dangerous and unsafe for play - it was designed for free play in addition to the hot-topped area for supervised recreation.

Approve Repairs By Insurance Co.

Repairs in Memorial Auditorium, to replace the section burned in a recent fire, will be handled by the insurance companies.

The School Committee adopted that course of action - rather than handling the job with town funds and receiving cash payment from the insurance - Tuesday night, Town Counsel Fredric S. O'Brien was quoted by Supt. Edward I. Erickson as approving the method.

Repair by the insurance company holds out hope of prompt completion, Erickson told the Committee. Moreover, it avoids problems of finding enough money to do the job under normal town auspices. Payments for claims against the town's fire insurance go into free cash; payment for the repairs has to be taken out of appropriated funds or via the Finance Committee's reserve fund.

Mr. Erickson said the fastest and easiest solution is to allow the insurance company to have the work done, to proper specifications.

Several activities, including the special town meeting June 15, might not be held in the auditorium, he predicted, unless the most speedy action is taken.

Planning Board Proposes Major By-Law Changes

Three major zoning changes, and a fourth proposal defining powers and duties of the Planning Board, will be presented at the special town meeting June 15.

The evening meeting will be held in Memorial Auditorium. The subjects covered in the Planning Board proposal are parking, signs and flood plain control. The fourth item, involving a by-law other than zoning, defines the Board's duties including the requirement that other boards and committees receive advisory opinions on contemplated projects.

In addition - and treated in detail elsewhere in this issue - will be the re-zoning of lot 83 on Florence st. and changing land west of Dascomb rd., near Rt. 93 and the industrial zone in Tewksbury, from residential to industrial.

The three major changes proposed by the Planning Board seek to set up parking regulations for the business areas, including space requirements; establish sign sizes, and spell out where they may be located; and require proper elevations and access to buildings in a district where flooding may occur.

Planner Gordon Brigham explained that legal uses will become non-conforming under the new rules and regulations. Thus property owners in the business district, for example, are not to be required to meet the new parking regulations. But as time goes on, and parcels of property are combined, or new buildings erected, a gradual improvement will take place.

At the moment, there are no sign regulations in a business district. The proposed by-law sets these up, as well as spelling out sign rules for other zones.

The fourth item - adoption of a by-law that sets forth Planning Board responsibilities - is technically not a zoning problem. But the Board explained that this might not otherwise come before the special meeting unless sponsored by the Planning Board itself.

At this time, it appears doubtful that other by-laws than zoning, will be presented June 15. By-Law Study Committee Chairman Robert Zollner told the Townsman this week that he could have the other by-laws ready for action - but he believes department heads should have an opportunity to suggest any new ones they believe necessary, and this can not be done before the June deadline.

The by-law presented by the Planning Board establishes that Board's responsibility for comprehensive town planning, including capital expenditures to meet the plan's requirements.

Under a section titled "Advisory referral", the by-law requires other boards and agencies of the town to submit plans for new municipal buildings, sites, moving of roads or utilities of the town, in order to obtain an advisory opinion.

Disposal of town-owned land also would be referred to the Planning Board for its opinion, under the proposal.

It also would have the Finance Committee submit its report on any new construction over $10,000, before the warrant closes.

In general, the by-law spells out the duties of the Planning Board but does not change responsibilities which already exist under the law, according to Mr. Brigham.

Mrs. John Gorrie of High Plain rd., and Mrs. John Murray of Summer st., recently attended the 25th reunion of their class at the Chamberlain School of Retailing in Boston.

HEARINGS PLANNED ON BY-LAWS

sponsibility it is to handle zoning for the town. To date, Mr. Zollner said, the Planning Board, Selectmen, town counsel Fredric S. O'Brien, building inspector Arthur Peatman and town clerk, Irving O. Piper have reviewed, and generally approve of, the proposed by-laws.

The Planning Board, after its hearing May 28, will vote on, and prepare a statement of its official position, for presentation to the town meeting.

New Format

The revised by-laws appear in a new format, substituting a tabular approach for the one now in use.

Few major changes have been made - most of the revisions are designed to clear up ambiguities or to fill in gaps in the existing by-laws.

Districts Deleted

Although most of the zoning districts remain intact, three have been eliminated as official districts. In each case, the specific use listed under the old district is incorporated in other districts in the new by-law. Thus, according to Mr. Zollner, the uses are still allowed. These changes are:

Agricultural district - deleted. The present by-law specifically lists this district but it is not defined. Agricultural use of land is allowed in most sections of town, without a permit unless some sort of nuisance is created.

Piggeries will not be allowed under the revision, except that any existing operation can remain as a non-conforming use. Also banned under the revised by-law is the raising of fur-bearing animals, but with a non-conforming use privilege for those already in the business.

The multiple residential district has been abandoned, with uses within that district transferred to the apartment district. There has been only one multiple residence district in the town - covering the area used by the Veterans Housing on Memorial cir.

The motel district will be eliminated - this use will be allowed in shopping center districts but there will no longer be a specific district for this exact purpose.

Educational district uses are allowed, under state law, in many other districts of a community. The new by-law conforms to the statutes as recently enacted, while the existing by-law does not meet these new requirements.

Enforcement Spelled Out

The by-laws have been expanded in these areas: definitions, accessory uses, non-conforming uses and enforcement.

Mr. Zollner, said few persons are affected by the changes.

In the area of enforcement, the revised by-laws set up a procedure by which any resident can obtain a written opinion from the building inspector over an alleged violation.

The resident need only submit his question in writing, and it must be answered by the inspector within 30 days, yes or no. A failure to reply will indicate that no violation exists, however.

Mr. Zollner described this process as giving the resident a clear, simple way to determine whether a by-law is being violated. In the past, he explained, it often was necessary to go to court for a remedy.

He also pointed out that the building inspector is the enforcement official, whenever a violation is found. He can have the police department issue a complaint. The by-law carries a provision for a $20 per day fine for each offense on which a person is found guilty.

Home Occupations

Customary home occupations - a bone of contention over the years - are more clearly defined by listing standards that must be met. Some occupations, particularly those of barber, beautician and real estate salesman, are mentioned as being excluded from permitted home businesses.

In all, 48 subjects are covered in the by-law revision.

Copies of the by-laws as revised, with comparative tables and a running commentary, are available for those who wish to study them, according to Atty. Zollner.

Florence St. Lot In Warrant

June 15 may mark a magic date for the town, and participants in the Florence st. hassle over lot 83.

For at the special town meeting, scheduled for Memorial Auditorium that Monday evening, voters will have a chance to decide the fate of the lot.

It will be presented to the meeting by the Planning Board in two ways - once as part of the overall zoning, in which the lot is listed as residential. The second time - in a special article, the Board will seek to have it zoned for business uses.

The Planning Board acted to include the controversial lot, after a request to do so had been received from the Selectmen.

Chairman Harold King said the fact that the zoning is in the special meeting warrant in two ways - both as residential and then as business - is an effort to gain acceptance of the over-all zoning map and description. He explained that the Board is only acknowledging the decision of the courts, by listing the lot as residential, in its present status.

The second article, he said, will ask to have the lot re-zoned to business. Mr. King expressed the feeling that owners of the partially-constructed building there are suffering extreme business hardship.

The article will be discussed at a legal hearing June 4 in Central School Auditorium, at 7:30 p.m. Following that hearing, the Planning Board will make its decision on whether to formally support the article. It must make a report to town meeting on this decision.

Latin Club In Costume For Roman Banquet

Over 100 handsomely-costumed members of the Latin Club recently enjoyed their annual Roman banquet at tables decorated with flowers, bowls of apples, and silver goblets.

A mural depicting Mt. Olympus and the 12 major gods and goddesses served as a backdrop for the head table. Other tables ringed the cafeteria which was decorated like a Roman banquet hall with benches, statuary, columns, flowering shrubs and a fountain.

At 6:30 a gong announced the reception of guests who were: Principal of Andover High and Mrs. Philip Wormwood, Principal of Andover Junior High and Mrs. William Hart, Mrs. Francis Egen and Mr. Batchelder, both representing the Essex County Classical League, Dan Goldman from Phillips Academy, George Drew, and the following faculty members: Miss Katherine Sweeney, Richard Neal, Mrs. Theodore Coates, Mrs. Henry Simon, Miss Janet Conte, Mrs. William Scanlon, Robert Deacon, Miss Josephine Genovese and Miss Elizabeth Cahoon. In the receiving line were the Latin teachers, Miss Harriet McKee and Mrs. Walter Partridge, with the Club officers as follows: president, Christine Urquhart; vice president, Christine Johnson; secretary, Susan Fisk; and treasurer, Donald McKinnon.

As soon as guests were seated the slaves, eighth grade honor students, first passed fingerbowls and then the appetizers. As the entertainment progressed, the slaves served the various courses.

After Susan Fisk had offered praise to the Gods, Jim Batchelder and Pam Porter brought in their roast pig with an apple in his mouth, a handsome but non-edible addition to the feast. Then Rick Nowell and Roger Hindman mixed "wine" and water until they arrived at the "optimum" combination. With goblets raised everyone joined in singing "Gaudemus Igitur".

Other entertainment included the Water Carriers' Dance by Betsy Pike, Marlene Carter, Peggy Massaro, and Jackie Moriarty; and the Dance in Honor of Venus by Marlene Carter and Jackie Moriarty. A play "Pyramus and Thisbe", announced by Bruce Westaway, had the following cast: Gretchen Witman, Douglas Audette, Kenneth Hoffman, Jeanette Forma, and Sandra West.

A musical comedy on the death of Caesar featured the following talented singers: Jacque Penny, Philip Clinton, Ed Nantoski, Gary Guarino and Joseph Tobacco.

Silver pins were awarded to the following for outstanding scholarship and effort in Latin for the third marking period: Leslie Schiller, Karen Mahanke, Sandra Churchill, Beverly Desmet, Kenneth Hoffman and Sandra West.

Featured speaker for the banquet was Dan Goldman, a student at Phillips Academy, who already knows four languages. He gave a scholarly and highly entertaining talk on "Why Study Latin?" Dan intends to go to Oxford and teach Greek and Latin at the college level.

After the banquet was over, Latin Club members paraded before the head table for the costume judging. There was unusual variety and prizes were awarded to the following:

Most original: Gary Guarino, Ray Pucci and Karen Guy; Most Handsome: David Shuford and Karen Mahanke; Most Authentic: Roger Hinman and Christine Urquhart.

Food for the banquet was prepared under the supervision of Mrs. George Drew of the Home Economics Department. Helping her in the cafeteria were the following mothers: Mrs. Massaro, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Fisk, Mrs. Pucci and Mrs. Guy.

Other committees for the banquet included:

Decorations: Edith Looney, Tor Deacon, Lynn Sabbagh, Andy Caffrey, Doug Dodd, Barbara Dolan and Susan Sanborn.

Invitations and Place Cards: Jeanne Lowe, Claire Proulx; Table Settings: Maureen Babicki, Dana Benson, Ken Ozonlan, Mary Ellen Reardon, Craig Allen, Bob Hefner, Jim Whinn and Frank Carroll.

Clean Up: Bob Neil, Bob Hall, Bruce Moody, John Adams, Steve Wilson, Bev Desmet and Candy Hunt.

Townsmen Editorial Thoughts

Job Standards . . . The Unknown Factor

The task of selecting a town manager, which now faces the Selectmen, should be that Board's greatest single responsibility — the success or failure of the Board to choose wisely overshadows any other action they may take.

We suggest that the community be kept well informed of the progress, but more importantly, of the criteria being used in the process of selection.

Most persons have had an opportunity to study the town charter, where the varied duties and responsibilities are spelled out. But this tells only part of the story. It's the bare skeleton — and what we want to see is the flesh and blood filled in, so that everyone understands what the Selectmen are seeking.

Do they want a manager who will serve more as an executive secretary, responsive only to the specific directions of the Board? Do they seek a man who can and will occasionally tell them where to head in, when they start to meddle in something that is legally his responsibility?

There are many questions such as these, but we have as yet seen no job description that does more than repeat the charter requirements as to education, experience and area of legal responsibility.

If the Board spells out the kind of man it is seeking, then the community can better judge whether or not they have chosen well. Only misunderstandings and future bitterness can result, if the voters are not taken into the Selectmen's confidence at this crucial stage.

In the future, we must know whether the Board is justified in telling a manager that they are not satisfied with his performance. And this judgment can only be based on an adequate description of what is expected.

Best Way To Help The Town

The Board of Trade has suggested that professional planners be retained to lay out the Recreation Park, in order to avoid the obvious problems inherent in amateur planning.

The directors feel that development of the park site to its fullest potential requires expert advice and that economical and orderly growth of this newest town facility can come best when it has been planned professionally.

The Recreation Committee wants no part of the idea. A suggested $800 price tag is rejected as being expensive; some members believe Recreation Director Leslie Bartow should be able to call on national recreation authorities, and at most, hire a consultant for a very brief period of time.

We would think that interested organizations — the Board of Trade and all the others who are supporting the facility with their time and money — might better underwrite the cost of such a professional plan, before putting their funds into equipment and areas which might not conform to the best in recreation planning.

This area is going to be with us for a long time; it is hoped that many hundreds of our residents will use it in all seasons of the year.

Thus it seems essential to have a plan for its growth that conforms to reasonable recreation standards, a plan that provides for its beauty as well as its functional uses. Probably the Recreation Committee is right in believing the town can't pay this fee — a $10,000 appropriation was voted to get started on preparing the area for use, and this assumes the existence of a plan that the Committee believes is adequate.

Perhaps, then, the interested organizations and individuals could pay for such a plan. This, in its most selfish sense, would serve as a protection for their investment.

And in the broader area of public service, it would provide for the town a better, more detailed layout of what may be expected of this recreation area in the future.

Get With It

A fire station in West Andover?

Where have we heard that before?

For more years than we care to remember, this project has been promised, has been given preliminary approval in town meeting, has met with the personal approval of all candidates for public office who addressed the West Andover Community Association — including those candidates who were successful.

There is no fire station. There is no land for one.

Town meeting voted money, under the land acquisition articles, for a site. That vote demonstrated the willingness of the voters to move in this direction. And indeed, a site was pinpointed. But there has been nothing further done.

We suggest that residents of the other sections of town take time to ride through West Andover in a leisurely way that will allow them to see the number of houses there, and not just the pavement on which their cars are operating. One long-time resident of the town did that a few weeks ago, and expressed amazement at the growth — growth that had been discussed and debated, but never really admitted until actually seen.

This is a project that has been put off too long, despite protestations of interest year after year. Let's have some action.

How About This . . .

There's some rumbling about a ballot question next March to rescind the town manager charter, returning to the form in existence five years ago — three Selectmen who usually also are the elected assessors, elected Board of Public Works, Planning Board, Board of Health and other town officials. Going backwards is no way to progress. If a change is to come, its proponents should have something better to offer than retrogression.

The state Crime Commission deserves warm applause. It's doing the job it is supposed to do — a task some folks thought it wouldn't have the courage or the independence to perform.

The book covers every significant part of every important type of ship ever built. This is a master work in the field, with contributions of time and talent of famous maritime specialists and marine artists from the United States, Finland, Denmark, Great Britain, Holland, Norway, Sweden and Germany. Down the Years with The Townsman

75 Years Ago — May, 1889

An interesting case of the recovery of stolen money has just occurred here. When burglars broke into the depot some six or seven years ago, they stole and carted away a lot of copper coins, 312 in number. They're worth $3.12 in current money, but lots more than that in the estimation of their owner, George Busfield. A total of 160 of them has just been found wrapped up in a newspaper, hidden in an old wall of the Electric Co.'s lot, and have been returned to their owner. Why they were left there, and why the burglars never returned to claim their loot, is an unknown.

In addition to its world-renowned educational facilities, its electric lights, and Haggitt's Pond water system in the near future, plus its building boom, Andover is now the traditional place to find money in the streets. The latest townsman to pick up money along the street is William G. Brown of Rea and Abbott's.

50 Years Ago — May, 1914

A horse owned and driven by Ralph Bailey became frightened of an electric car in the Square yesterday morning. The animal ran up Elm st. and down Florence st., throwing Mr. Bailey from the wagon. Vegetables were strewn along the street and Mr. Bailey received a severe shaking up. Fortunately, no further damage resulted.

George Bruce of Ballardvale was the lucky winner of the automobile offered at the store of J.B. Scott.

T. A. Holt Co. lost a valuable horse Monday evening.

25 Years Ago — May, 1939

The Andover Male Choir walked off with top honors in its group, and the number one prize for all groups, at the 15th annual concert and contest of the New England Federation of Men's Glee Clubs in New Haven, Conn., Saturday night. J. Everett Collins, Choir director led the 500 men, from many choirs, in the evening concert.

Dr. Charles Gabeler has been appointed to the Finance Committee. In most part, however, Moderator Frederick Butler has re-appointed most of those who served last year on the various town committees under his control.

Barbara Lindsay, an eighth grade student, out-spelled her contemporaries, then vanquished her older opponents from the high school, to become champion speller in the annual Lincoln matches. Second was Emily Livingston, from the same grade.

Mrs. A. Graham Baldwin of Andover was elected second vice president of the Mass. League of Women Voters, at the annual convention in Springfield.

Yesterday afternoon, the Punched eleven was nosed out 3-2 by its Methuen rivals, thus suffering the first loss of the year.

10 Years Ago — May, 1954

Complete approval of the teaching of conversational French in the elementary grades, with a recommendation for its continuance, was given Monday night by the principals of the grade schools and the teachers involved in the controversial program.

A tax rate of $47 - $3 over a year ago — has been announced by the assessors.

The All-Sports banquet will be held June 9, according to Chairman Charles O. McCullom.

All Boy Scout and Explorer Scout units of Andover will camp this weekend at Sid White's farm on Lowell st. Cub Scouts will visit the site Sunday afternoon.

The proposed merger of the Ballardvale Churches is another step closer. The congregations of the Methodist and Congregational Churches met together May 5 to discuss the proposal and get answers to mutual questions. Another such meeting will be held later this month, as the proposal appears to gain strength among members of the two churches.

What Our Readers Say—

To the Editor of the Townsman
"I doubt that anyone present at the Selectmen's meeting Monday night (May 4) questioned the democratic principles followed in not re-appointing Mr. Duff to a second term as town manager."

"As elected officials, however, I believe that the Selectmen have a moral obligation in answering to the citizens of Andover all questions asked at an official meeting. This the Selectmen failed to do and excelled in the art of evasion by coming to the meeting with an ill-prepared statement on which they failed to elaborate. As a lot, they displayed a high degree of ineptness. Not one of them had the courage to stand up and be counted."

"It was also obvious to all present that the chairman would have had extreme difficulty in conducting the meeting were it not for the coaching from the side line by the Selectman seated to his left. "There is no doubt that the citizens of Andover will speak with authority and responsibility at next March's election. At least we know of one Selectman who has to account for his "Stewardship!"

Where other buildings exist within 200 feet on either side of the lot in question and within the same block and district, the principal structure may extend as near the way as the average alignment of said other buildings; but if such other buildings are more than thirty feet from the way, the principal structure shall not extend nearer said way than the average setback of such other buildings.

d. In the case of lots abutting on more than one way, the minimum front yard depth requirements shall be applicable to each such way (except as provided for accessory buildings in paragraph 3 hereof); such lots shall be required to have the minimum frontage on only one such way.

e. In the case of lots which abut on a limited access highway, the minimum yard depth requirements on such highway shall be the same as the applicable side or rear yard minimum depth.

f. No fence or sign shall be erected or installed and no trees, shrubs or other growth shall be planted or permitted to grow or exist in any district requiring a minimum front yard depth which would unreasonably obstruct the view of traffic by operators of vehicles at street intersections, or which would be situated nearer than five feet to any property line, and (e) in the case of corner lots are not nearer than ten feet to any abutting way.

3. Location of Accessory Buildings

The minimum requirements for yard depth shall not preclude the placing of accessory buildings (which include an attached garage) in such minimum yard area, provided the same (a) are located in the rear yard and not over one and one-half stories in height, (c) cover not more than thirty percent of such yard area, (d) are located nearer than five feet to any property line, and (e) in the case of corner lots are not nearer than ten feet to any abutting way.

Every such building in a Business District shall hereafter be located not less than 15 feet inside the property line.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Parking

1. In Apartment Districts there shall be provided at least one paved off-street parking space, or space in garage or carport, for each dwelling unit, said space to be not more than two hundred feet from the outside entrance to such unit. No space shall be considered available for parking which reduces the effective width of a driveway providing access to six or more dwelling units or eight or more parking spaces. Before granting a special permit, the Board of Appeals shall request a report from the Planning Board on the extent of such conformity.
2. For motels and hotels (except in a Business District) there shall be provided, for each sleeping unit, one paved parking space, exclusive of circulation area.
3. In the Shopping Center Districts paved parking space for automobiles shall be provided on the site in connection with any establishment or combination of establishments in conformity with the following provisions:
 - a. For businesses, at least 3 spaces for each two hundred square feet of floor area or fraction thereof.
 - b. For restaurant or other place serving food, or for an indoor amusement or recreation place or place of assembly not less than one space for each 3 seats, and/or for each sixty inches of permanent bench seating area, and/or each thirty-six square feet of area without permanent seating facilities devoted to the assembly of people.
 - c. For a medical or dental office, 6 spaces for each doctor or dentist.
 - d. For a filling station, drive-in or open-air business or for any other use not specified herein, sufficient off-street parking spaces to accommodate the anticipated needs of patrons and employees without habitual use of streets.
4. In Industrial Districts, adequate off-street parking and loading facilities shall be provided and maintained. Loading docks or loading areas will not be permitted on those sides of any buildings fronting on a street. Adequate off-street loading space shall be provided on the premises in side or rear areas. Adequate parking shall include at least one space for each five hundred square feet of useable floor area, unless the Board of Appeals shall deem a lesser amount to be adequate or a greater amount to be needed to serve the anticipated uses.

Signs

1. In all districts - Real estate signs, of not over six square feet in area advertising the sale or rental of only the premises on which they are located; lodging, boarding and tourist signs of not over ten square feet, and signs or bulletin boards of not over ten square feet accessory to permitted institutional, recreational, and educational uses. Such signs shall be placed as the Planning Board may direct and shall not be inconsistent with Sections 29-33 inclusive of Chapter 93 of the General Laws or with rules and regulations of the State Division of Highways.
2. In Shopping Center Districts - Advertising signs of a non-flashing, non-animated type, in any or all three categories:
 - a. Signs attached flat against the wall of the building, provided that the total area of all such signs does not exceed one square foot for every forty square feet of ground floor area of the building to which they are attached.
 - b. Free-standing signs limited to a total of one sign and a total of one hundred square feet of sign area, for each street on which the Shopping Center fronts.
 - c. Directional and traffic signs, subject to the approval of the Chief of Police.
3. In Industrial Districts - Identifying signs shall be limited to non-flashing, non-animated signs in any or all three categories:
 - a. Signs attached flat against the wall of the building or projecting not more than six feet above such wall, provided that the total area of all such signs does not exceed one square foot for every forty square feet of ground floor area of the building to which they are attached.
 - b. Free-standing signs limited to a total of one sign and a total of one hundred square feet of sign area, for each street on which the property fronts.
 - c. Directional and traffic signs, subject to the approval of the Chief of Police.

Landscaping

1. In Shopping Center Districts - Landscaping and screening shall be provided and maintained in accordance with planting plans approved by the Planning Board and incorporated as part of the plans on which the Special permit of the Board of Appeals is based.
2. In Industrial Districts - Landscaping and screening shall be provided and maintained in front yards, and in side or rear yards adjacent to developed residential property, in accordance with planting plans approved by the Planning Board and incorporated as part of the plans on which the special permit of the Board of Appeals is based.

Special Development Plans

The Planning Board may approve according to the Subdivision Control procedures authorized in Section 31K and Chapter 41 of the General Laws, a subdivision plan in any Single Residence District other than Single Residential District for a tract of 10 acres or more in which some of the individual lots do not conform specifically to the lot area, frontage, setback, or yard requirements of Section V., Subsection A (Table of Dimensional Requirements) above, provided that:

1. The total area of all lots in such proposed subdivision is not less than the product of the total number of lots times the minimum lot size for the zoning district in which the subdivision is located, and in no case shall an individual lot have less than two-thirds of the required lot size for the zoning district in which the subdivision is located.
2. The aggregate street frontage of lots in such proposed subdivision, counting only one frontage for corner lots, is not less than one-half the product of the number of lots times the minimum frontage requirement for the zoning district in which the subdivision is located, and the minimum width of any individual lot shall be 100 feet measured either at the street or at the setback line.
3. The proposed setback lines are clearly shown on the proposed subdivision plan and are deemed by the Board to be adequate under the specific conditions which pertain to the property in question.
4. The Planning Board finds that the proposed disposition of lots and buildings, under the particular circumstances involved, will make more efficient the provision by the Town, of Health, safety, protective, and other services without detracting from the character of the neighborhood.

Such subdivision plan, when approved and recorded, shall be considered a supplementary part of this Zoning Ordinance and thereafter no land therein shall be sold and no lot line shall be changed in such way as to increase the extent of non-conformity with the general provision of this Bylaw.

Removal of Material

1. Anything in any other bylaw of this Town to the contrary notwithstanding, no person shall remove for the purpose of sale any soil, loam, sand, or gravel from any land not in public use in any part of the Town without first obtaining written permit therefor from the Board of Selectmen after a public hearing at which all interested persons shall be given an opportunity to be heard. At least twenty days' notice of the time and place of such hearing shall, at the expense of the applicant for a permit, be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the Town.

2. Before granting any such permit the Board of Selectmen shall give due consideration to the location of the place from which it is proposed to remove soil, loam, sand or gravel, to the general character of the neighborhood surrounding such location and to the effect of the proposed removal on such neighborhood, to the amount of noise, dust and vibration likely to result from the proposed removal, to the extent, depth and contour of the location and surrounding neighborhood from which such removal is proposed, to the general safety of the public on the public ways giving access to and in the immediate vicinity of such location and to the use to which such location has been put prior to the application for a permit. No permit granted by the Board of Selectmen shall be valid for a period in excess of three years from its date of issue.
3. As a part of and as set forth in any such permit the Board of Selectmen may impose such reasonable restrictions and conditions on the exercise of the permit as they deem to be in the public interest, including but not limited to the following:
 - a. the duration of time during which the permit may be exercised;
 - b. the extent, depth and contour of the area of removal;
 - c. the grade of the slope of the banks of the area of removal;
 - d. the proximity of such removal to any public way;
 - e. the hours of the day during which such removal may be permitted;
 - f. the hours of the day during which vehicles may be loaded with soil, loam, sand and gravel and during which such loaded vehicles may be permitted to leave such location;
 - g. the use of covers over the soil, loam, sand or gravel loaded in vehicles for removal from the area;
 - h. the shoring and reinforcement of the banks of any excavation; and
 - i. the replacement of top soil and the replanting of the area of removal and screening the same from public view.
4. This Bylaw shall not apply to the removal of soil, loam, sand or gravel incidental to and reasonably required in connection with the construction on the premises of any buildings for which a permit has been issued by the Inspector of Buildings.

SECTION VII. NONCONFORMANCE

Any lawful building or structure or use of a building or structure or land existing at the time this Bylaw or any amendment thereto takes effect may be continued although not conforming to the provisions thereof, subject to the following conditions:

A. Alteration

A nonconforming building or structure may undergo alteration involving reconstruction, extension or structural change, provided that in no case may it be enlarged or extended more than a sum total of 10 percent in volume or floor area during the life of the nonconformity.

B. Replacement after Catastrophe

If a nonconforming building or structure shall have been damaged by fire, explosion, or other catastrophe, to such an extent as to be unsalvageable or to require total replacement, such building or structure shall not be restored and may be replaced only by a conforming building or use. If such a building or structure shall have been only partially damaged and is salvageable without total replacement, it may be rebuilt and restored to the same nonconforming use as previously, provided that the extent of nonconformance shall be in no way increased.

C. Abandonment

A nonconforming use of a building or structure which has been abandoned or discontinued for at least one year (or five years in the case of an agricultural, horticultural, or floricultural nonconforming use), shall not thereafter be revived or reactivated. A nonconforming use shall be considered abandoned or discontinued when the premises have been devoted to a conforming use, or when the premises have been vacant and the characteristic equipment and furnishings of the nonconforming use have been removed from the premises and have not been replaced by similar equipment within one year.

D. Change in Use

In no case shall there be a substantial increase in a nonconforming use, or a change thereof (except to a conforming use) which in the opinion of the Board of Appeals results in a use of substantially different character or purpose.

SECTION VIII. ADMINISTRATION AND PROCEDURE

A. Enforcement

This Bylaw shall be administered by the Building Inspector appointed by the Town Manager. No building shall hereafter be built or altered and no use of land requiring a building permit shall be begun or changed without a permit having been issued by him. No building so built or altered shall be occupied until a certificate of occupancy as required by the Andover Building Code has been issued by him.

Applications for building permits shall be accompanied by a plot plan of the lot in duplicate, drawn to scale, showing the actual dimensions of the lot and the exact location and size of the buildings already upon the lot and of the building or structure to be erected, together with the ways on and adjacent to the lot. A record of such applications and plot plans shall be kept on file in the office of the Building Inspector.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this Bylaw may be fined not more than twenty ($20.00) dollars for each offense. Each day that such violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.

If any resident of the Town shall complain in writing to the Building Inspector that a provision or provisions of this Zoning Bylaw are being violated, identifying the violation or violations he believes to exist and the person or party in violation, the Building Inspector shall investigate such complaint and shall respond to the complainant ruling that a violation does or does not exist. Failure of the Building Inspector to so respond within thirty (30) days after receipt of such complaint shall be deemed a ruling or decision by him that no violation exists. If he rules that a violation does exist, he shall so inform the person or party against whom such violation is found, ordering him to cease such violation. Any person or party aggrieved by a ruling or decision of the Building Inspector upon such a complaint may appeal to the Board of Appeals as hereinafter provided.

The Chief of Police shall, upon application of the Building Inspector, enter a complaint in the proper court for any violation of any provision of this Bylaw.

B. Board of Appeals

There is hereby established a Board of Appeals of three (3) members and three (3) associate members to be appointed by the Selectmen, as provided in Chapter 40A of the General Laws, which shall act on all matters within its jurisdiction under this Bylaw in the manner prescribed in said Chapter 40A of the General Laws. The Board of Appeals shall have the following powers:

1. Appeals. To hear and decide an appeal taken by any person aggrieved by reason of his inability to obtain a permit from any administrative official under the provisions of said Chapter 40A of the General Laws, or by any officer or board of the Town or by any person aggrieved by any order or decision of the Building Inspector or other administrative official given under any provision of said Chapter 40A of the General Laws or of this Bylaw.
2. Special Permit. To grant a special permit for an exception as provided by other sections of this Bylaw when it has found that the proposed use will not be unreasonably detrimental to the established or future character of the neighborhood and town and that such exception is in harmony with the general purpose and intent of this Bylaw. In making the foregoing findings, the Board shall give due consideration to specific standards described in other parts of this Bylaw, and to the following criteria:
 - a. The adequacy and accessibility of public highways and municipal utilities; (b) the sufficiency and suitability of off-street parking and loading facilities and of screening and landscaping to be provided in connection with the proposed use; (c) the effect on the amenity of the neighborhood which can be anticipated from the conditions created by the proposed use and operation of the premises. Any grant of a special permit hereunder may be subject to such conditions or safeguards, including limitations of time and use, as the Board of Appeals shall deem to be reasonably necessary.
3. Variances. To authorize upon appeal, or upon petition in cases where a particular use is sought for which no permit is required, with respect to a particular parcel of land or to an existing building thereon a variance from the terms of this Bylaw where, owing to conditions especially affecting such parcel or such building but not affecting generally the zoning district in which it is located, a literal enforcement of the provisions of this Bylaw would involve substantial hardship, financial or otherwise, to the appellant, and where desirable relief may be granted without substantial detriment to the public good and without nullifying or substantially derogating from the intent or purpose of this Bylaw, but not otherwise.

C. Amendment

This Bylaw may be amended from time to time at an annual or special town meeting in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 40A of the General Laws.

D. Conflict of Laws

In general, this Bylaw is supplementary to other Bylaws of the Town affecting the use, height, area and location of buildings and structures and the use of premises. When this Bylaw imposes a greater restriction upon the use, height, area and location of buildings and structures or the use of land in the Town than is imposed by such other Bylaws, the provisions of this Bylaw shall control.

E. Validity

The invalidity of any section or provision of this Bylaw shall not invalidate any other section or provision thereof.

At The Library

Programs Closed

The usual Thursday afternoon story hour and the Great Books programs are closed for the season. All Littlest Listener groups are ended for the summer, the final "last day party" for the Teddy Bears was held yesterday. Travel talks have been greatly enjoyed this spring, and will continue in the autumn or early winter.

Children's Spring Festival

This is the week when all boys and girls will find new books displayed in their room. The displays will remain on view until Saturday. All are invited to come in!

Registration

On May 15 mothers of children who will be four on or before October 15 may apply for membership in the Littlest Listener groups. This year it has been necessary to raise the age minimum to four and, again, the groups are limited to a small number. To be effective, the library has found that children gain more in appreciation of books and stories if they meet in small groups. Registration should be in the Children's room. The room is open from 2-6 o'clock.

Films Available

From now until May 22 there will be three films: New England: Background of Literature, in color, 10 minutes - sites associated with Thoreau, Whittier, Bryant, Emerson, Holmes, etc.; Robert Frost, 30 minutes - the poet discusses his life and his work from his home on the farm in Vermont; The Charter, 15 minutes - the origins of international diplomacy from the formation of the Congress of Vienna to the present-day structure of the UN as created by the Charter; from May 18 to June 5 there will be two other films: Farmers Of India, 20 minutes, the story of a family attempting to make a living from the soil in the Middle Ganges valley, and a color film, Wings On The Wind, 14 minute study of large birds riding the updrafts in the tropical air, in search of food, safety and solitude. This film also shows the nesting and feeding habits of long-legged and long-billed water birds.

From now until the middle of June there will be three color travel films on Canadian subjects, also available: they are Holiday Corner, 14 minutes, Three Trout To Dream About, 14 minutes and Trans-Canada Journey, 28 minutes. All films should be reserved early.

Entertained Students
From California

Jack and James Stanfield, Gary Maxwell, Dick George and Garry Jackson, all of So. Gate, Cal., and all students at Long Beach State College, Cal., left their native State about March 1 on a three month's tour of the United States.

They are travelling in a Volkswagen, Station wagon equipped with camping material and sleeping beds, and before they reach their homes on or about June 1 they expect to travel 14,000 miles. These five young men were all house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cole of Marion ave. during the first part of the week. They have visited many of the large cities and also attended the Worlds' Fair.

They all enjoyed their Andover visit very much.

Thompson Elected Center President

DAVID M. THOMPSON

The annual meeting of the Youth Center Board of Directors was held May 6.

David Thompson was re-elected president of the Board. Harold Rutter Jr. serves as treasurer and Mrs. Donald Sagaser, secretary.

Newly-elected to the Board is James D. Doherty.

Other directors are Mrs. Foster Barnard, Eugene Bernardin, Edward L. Erickson, Miss Anne Harnedy, N. P. Hallowell Jr., Fred Harrison, Stafford Lindsay, Police Chief David L. Nicoll, Mrs. James Prout, Mrs. Walter Partridge, David Roberts, Mrs. Frank Sherman, Atty. Vincent Stulgis, Selectman Robert A. Watters, Mrs. Edward Stupack and Mrs. John Young.

During the meeting, a report was offered covering part of a survey undertaken during the year to evaluate the work being done by the Center, and how it can best serve the needs of the town's young people. It included a survey of the free time activities of young people in the ninth and 10th grades. Helping tabulate the answers were members of the Andona Society.

Many possibilities for improved service are under active consideration by the Board, with a special planning committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Lindsay.

Cronin Heads MS Campaign

The National Multiple Sclerosis Society has launched its annual Hope Chest Campaign for funds, continuing through Father's Day, June 17.

This year's drive is under the general chairmanship of Registrar James R. Lawton supported by Selectman Paul W. Cronin, as local chairman for the Andover, Lawrence and Methuen area. In all, some 1,000 women have volunteered to march. The money raised in the campaign not only goes towards support of research being conducted in the U. S. and many foreign countries, but also helps maintain Patient Clinics at Mass. General Hospital and the Boston Dispensary. Beyond this, the local Chapter office wishes to expand its patient service program for the benefit of more than 5,000 victims in the Greater Boston area.

Mr. Cronin, as Chairman, wishes to congratulate the many volunteers who have accepted the challenge to march in a worthy cause. There is no cure for MS but there is hope through research. Mr. Cronin says that as much or more money is returned to this area in the form of research grants as is sent to New York to be used in the National Program.

A chronic grouch is seldom as tired of the world as the world is of him.

Sutton Monro, a former resident of Andover, has been promoted to full professor of Industrial Engineering at Lehigh University. He is a graduate of M.I.T. and did graduate work at the University of North Carolina. He has been on the Lehigh faculty since 1959.

CREDIT BELONGS TO NORTHEASTERN STUDENTS

Much credit for the interesting collection of ancient guns, now on display at the Addison Gallery of American Art, Phillips Academy, can be traced to two Northeastern University students.

They are Richard Currier, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Currier, 17 Hidden rd. and George Browning, a Connecticut resident whose passion for collecting old guns caused him to join the Andover Historical Society. The two men carefully researched and catalogued the Society's collection, borrowed others from private collectors, and set up the display at the Gallery. Many extremely valuable guns, some dating back a century and one-half, are included.

Your Valuable Furs Deserve Our Kind of Care

We clean and glaze them expertly. . . get out the sooty dirt that dulls their beauty, and put back the gloss of newness. Our service can include repairs when needed, bonded storage in our own, new, air-conditioned, temperature-controlled vaults. Furs entrusted to us are 100% safe! Fully insured, protected against moths, fire, theft! It's foolish to take chances with an investment like your furs. Bring them to ANTON'S today.
